(Thiensville) Darling Campaign Statement on protests at the Glendale office:

Once again, a handful of protesters tried to distract hard working volunteers and the voters of the 8th Senate District today at the Glendale campaign office. Today's focus was on spreading misinformation regarding Medicare in the form of a funeral.

"Either today's protesters are trying to mislead and confuse the voters or they don't know what a state senator does," Campaign manager Andrew Davis said. "Medicare is a federal issue. Senator Darling's focus has always been on and will continue to be getting Wisconsin back to work. If the policies of Jim Doyle and Sandy Pasch were allowed to continue, the only thing we'd be holding a funeral for would be Wisconsin's job market."

Even the protesters know that Senator Darling can't vote on Medicare at the state level¹. Yet they continue to protest in a shameful attempt to confuse voters and shift the focus of this race away from Senator Darling's sterling record of protecting Wisconsin taxpayers.

State Senator Alberta Darling has represented the 8th Senate District covering the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th Assembly Districts since 1992. She currently serves as Co-Chair of the Joint Finance Committee. She also chairs the Senate Committee on Finance.
